New Phone Book Helps Patrons

It's that time of year again when everyone and his brother can see their names in print in a brand new book—this year's Antioch telephone directory.

Delivery of the new directory begins Wednesday, May 8, according to D. L. Hood, Illinois Bell manager.

Dressed in a colorful new cover, the directory features a table of contents on the first page, newly designed to help customers find specific information in the front pages about how to use their telephones.

Hood pointed to the inside back cover of the directory which contains a list of more than 400 all-number prefixes and the communities in which they are used.

The list, including most communities in northeastern Illinois and Lake County, Ind., grows in importance each year as more and more customers receive new-style all-number prefixes.

Directory deliveries are normally completed in a week's time, Hood said. Customers who have any questions about their directory should contact the business office.

For those whose calling needs extend beyond the local directory, the manager reminded that the following directories are available from his office at no charge: the Chicago directory, and Chicago Suburban, North, South and West sectional directories which cover the entire metropolitan area outside Chicago including Calumet and Joliet Regional communities. Directories of other cities may be obtained for a nominal charge.

Forced Housing Bill Draws Protest

Charles Cermak, president of the Waukegan-Lake County Association of Realtors, is one of a group which traveled to Springfield Tuesday to protest the enactment of the "Forced Housing" law in the legislature.

With the bill expected to come up for consideration on Wednesday, Illinois realtors were organizing a caravan to travel to the state capitol to express their opposition to the bill.

In its present form, the bill applies only to owners renting four or more units. The bill would make it illegal to refuse to rent to anyone because of race, creed or religion.

Bill Raises School Tax

Gov. Otto Kerner last week signed into law bills amending the School Code. One of the bills raises tax rate limitations from .9 of 1 percent to 1.60 percent for educational purposes in community consolidated school districts. Antioch News Doubles Opens This Saturday

Saturday will be the opening day in the big Antioch News Mixed Doubles Tournament to be held at the Antioch Bowl.

The tournament will run from May 11 to June 16. A $150.00 first prize is guaranteed, with prizes increased and extended if entries exceed 200.

League season is over, and this is the big tournament season, when every true bowler feels the urge to get in there and prove he can roll that big series. The handicap is the equalizer, and the lucky bowler who "gets hot" at the right time can collect the big money and have the undeniable satisfaction of having his name up there with the recognized "hot shots."

The Antioch News Mixed Doubles will run continuously from May 11 through June 16. The alleys will be closed for about five days of this time for re-finishing, but will be open on all weekends. Couples may bowl at any time during the week or on the weekend.

The tournament is confined to Lake County bowlers and to those who bowl in Antioch Bowl leagues this past year. The tournament is ABC-WIBC sanctioned, so if you roll a 300 game you'll get the full benefit of it.

Bowlers may enter as often as they wish, and can collect prize money with each partner. There are special prizes in addition to the regular prizes.

Village Board Approves Requests In Long Session

The Village Board wrangled until midnight Tuesday night over whether or not to give four assurances asked for by the promoters of the proposed Antioch Shopping Plaza, and finally voted grudgingly assent on two of the propositions, with little opposition to the other two.

The proposition arousing the most opposition among board members was the request of Plaza developers that a package liquor license be granted to one of the prospective Plaza tenants. Ernest Glenn opposed the granting of the liquor license, on the grounds that some Antioch businesses had already been refused such licenses. He was supported in his stand by Williams and Nissen. When the matter was finally brought to a vote, Irving Walsh, Ernest Glenn and Einar Petersen voted to grant the license, and David Nissen, Ray Toft and Roger Williams voted nay. The Ye vote of Village President Murrill Cunningham broke the tie, and assured the Plaza developers of village board co-operation.

Dr. E. C. Verner and Frederick Walpole were present at the Board meeting to present the requests. Dr. Verner read a letter from Arthur Rubloff & Co., developers of the Plaza, presenting the four requests to the Board, and explaining that these assurances were necessary to secure certain desirable key tenants in the Plaza and assure its construction. The four assurances asked were:

1. The granting of the use of a 30 foot strip on the south end of the village parking lot to be used as an access lane to the Plaza. Plaza developers would, in turn, set aside a connecting 30 feet of roadway on the south portion of their property this creating a 30 foot road from Broadway to Hillside to run along the south edge of the village parking lot and the proposed Plaza.

2. Plaza developers asked that they be granted a lease on a 40 foot strip from the east side of the parking lot. At present, there is a 70 ft. road to Orchard St. here. The road would be cut to a 30 foot lane to Orchard St. The additional 40 feet would ensure enough parking space within the Plaza itself to meet the requirements of prospective tenants.

3. Plaza developers asked that the remainder of the village parking lot be blacktopped by the time the plaza is ready to open.

4. The assurance that a package liquor license be granted to one of the prospective tenants. Developers felt that the liquor license would increase traffic in the plaza and enhance the prospective value of stores to all tenants.

Consent had previously been given by the board to the establishment of a 30 foot road from Broadway to Hillside. There was some discussion of a buffer zone of one foot to be maintained by plaza owners on the south side of the road, which would prevent Lake St. owners bordering the area from using the road. Frederick Walpole suggested that Plaza owners would be willing to abandon the one-foot buffer if Lake St. property owners wished to donate a matching 30 foot roadway from the rear of their property, creating a 60 foot road. The board voted unanimously to establish the access lane.

Assurance that the remainder of the village parking lot would be blacktopped was readily given.

Opposition to the board's granting use of 40 feet of property on the east side of the village parking lot to the plaza, and to granting of a liquor license, held the board in discussion so long that the meeting was recessed until May 14 after the propositions were finally voted on.

The extra board session will be necessary to take care of other matters of business. Ernest Glenn objected to giving use of the 40-foot of village property on the grounds that the board would be giving away public property. Mr. Walpole pointed out that the plaza was giving a 30 foot roadway through their property for public use and that the town would benefit from construction of the plaza. Mayor Cunningham pointed out that Antioch needs the plaza to compete with surrounding towns and that some concessions must be made to insure its construction within the village.

Considerable opposition to the granting of the liquor license was voiced, and Ernest Glenn suggested that, if the license were to be granted, it might be wise to grant similar licenses to all reputable competing businesses who desired them.

With approval of the Plaza's requests, Frederick Walpole announced that Plaza developers would probably be ready to announce the names of tenants in about 30 days, and that construction of the Plaza would start this summer and be completed by next spring.

The board meeting had opened with the swearing-in by Village Clerk Clarence Shults of the four newly-elected trustees—Ray Toft, David Nissen, Irving Walsh and Einar Petersen. Treasurer Martha Hunter announced that 16 Oakwood Knolls residents had paid fees for water and sewer hook-ons.

Mayor Murrill Cunningham appointed committees for the coming year:

License committee—Irvy Walsh, Ernest Glenn, Roger Williams.

Surface Water—Dave Nissen, Ernest Glenn, Ray Toft.

Finance and Audit—Einar Petersen.

The Forced Housing Issue

A bill has been proposed in the Ill. legislature which would make it a crime to use race, creed, or religion as a basis for choosing a buyer for your property or renting living or sleeping accommodations.

This seems like a pretty obvious political bid for the Negro vote. It comes on top of the introduction of the racial issue into the relief problem, at a time when no further stirring of the explosive racial issue is needed.

It would be foolish to say there is no discrimination against the colored man in this country, or that time and patience will cure it. Time has not cured it. Some little progress has been made, though, and it would be a shame to see that progress nullified.

Two wrongs don't add up to a right, as is often pointed out. To take away the individual freedom of one group in an attempt to gain wider freedoms for another group is not going to contribute to a sound and free America.

No one can blame the honorable and conscientious negro for being bitter at the discrimination he meets, and in striving for more equal opportunity for his children. But laws against discrimination should be confined to the use of government-supported facilities, and the field of government jobs.

When laws are used to force one private citizen to hire, rent to, sell to, another specific person or group of persons, every American citizen loses a little more of his individual freedom. The negro loses that freedom right along with the rest of the people. It may look like a good trade now, but his children may well wish he had guarded his rights as a citizen as zealously as he fought for recognition.

The fight against discrimination will go on, but let's hope all groups keep their eyes on the common goal. It should be a war to free all men from the bondage of prejudice, not to ensnare them in a common bondage of laws that limit personal freedom.

Your Governor Reports
by OTTO KERNER

This week has been proclaimed as Exceptional Children's Week in Illinois. I urge all citizens to give unselfishly of their attention and whatever else may be needed in the success of programs in this vital area.

Exceptional children are defined in Illinois as those who are talented and gifted as well as those who are orthopedically handicapped, deaf, blind, partially seeing, speech handicapped, mentally retarded and socially mal-adjusted.

The Illinois program for exceptional children is considered outstanding by educators. The Illinois Commission for Handicapped Children, in connection with this week's observance, is asking citizens interested in the program to visit the special education classes in their local public and parochial schools.

I would like to call attention to one facet of our program in the area of exceptional children, and that is our mission of offering more toward the education of gifted children.

In the budget I have presented the General Assembly included the recommended

Courthouse Notebook

BY LOU DUKIN

It looked like the annual convention of former candidates for Congress from the 12th Congressional District at the Blumore Country Club in Barrington Friday night during the dinner meeting of the Tri-County Republican Club.

Prominent at the speakers' table as Cong. Robert McClary and scattered through the audience were several of his opponents in last spring's primary for the Republican nomination.

State Senator Robert Conison occupied a place at the head table and out in the audience were Max Wildman, of Lake Bluff, busy shaking hands and greeting old supporters and new friends; Jim Wetzel, of Deerfield, who is a frequent visitor to gatherings political and George Francis, of Grayslake, who dropped out of sight for a while, but is making the rounds again.

Cong. Elmer Hoffman, of DuPage County, made a Congressional-type speech, but his handshaking and personal greetings were strictly Springfield.

Hoffman, a former state treasurer and former DuPage County sheriff, has been a frequent speaker at GOP meetings in Lake County in recent months, a fact attributable more to his political prominence than to his standing as an orator.

Introductions took a considerable portion of the evening, but we saw few members of the county board in attendance. Not even Cuba Supervisor Joseph P. Welch, in whose bailiwick the party was held.

Apparently members of the county board turn out only for their own members.

It and when County Coroner Robert Babcox decides to run again for Sheriff he will have to find a new platform plank, because Sheriff Charles Larson is making a major improvement in his office in the next few days.

As soon as new badges and insignia are delivered Sheriff Larson will establish new ranks and grades in the sheriff's office in order to develop a chain of command and authority.

Babcox in his previous campaigns, for sheriff made the establishment of such a system one of his key planks as have other candidates in the past.

According to Sheriff Larson the new ranks will be awarded on a merit basis and he anticipates a substantial increase in the efficiency in the office.

The plan is similar to one recommended by former Deerfield Supervisor Emmett Moroney when he made his farewell address to the county board shortly before his retirement became effective Dec. 31.

Weep soft tears for County Treasurer Karl Berning. Placing full confidence in the ability of the new IBM data processing equipment to take all the delays out of the preparation of the annual tax bills, the new treasurer proudly announced several weeks ago that the bills would be in the mail May 1, the earliest date in history.

Now Berning has learned of some delays and has been forced to move the date back a bit.

When the final cost of preparing the tax bills with the new equipment is totalled up it will be interesting to see what the cost of farming out some of the work will run and how the final cost will compare with the expense of preparing the bills under the old-fashioned people method.

And isn't it true that some of the supervisors who approved the leasing of the new equipment are charged to learn that they won't be able to put any "friends" to work in the courthouse during the billing and collection period this year?

Average daily toll revenue for April, 1963, was $65,621 as compared to $68,345 for the same month a year ago. Average daily toll revenue for the first four months of 1963 was $56,359 as compared to $58,600 for the same period in 1962.

Why A Lake County Museum?

Scuba divers cutting holes in the ice and plunging into the dark, cold waters in search of a mastodon skull; television and radio shows; people crawling on their stomachs in attics, basements and other crawl spaces, searching for historical objects; Civil War cannons, rifles, and revolvers actually being fired; men and women excavating and preserving prehistoric Indian skeletons in the middle of the winter; grain being threshed in the old-fashioned way with wood-burning engines and threshing machines; discovering new information through historical research; removing interiors of old stores; moving, storing, cleaning, preserving, and cataloging historical specimens; building exhibits in below-freezing weather; dedicated people giving of their time, money, and most prized possessions.

This is just a glimpse into some of the activities involved in building the Lake County Museum of History. Why all this activity? Why is it necessary to have a Lake County Museum of History? The answer is simple. History can best be examined at the local level. This is the only Museum in the world primarily dedicated to the preservation of the objects associated with the growth and development of this region. The Lake County Museum is interested in American History, with particular emphasis on the history of Lake County.

The Lake County Museum is a live and vibrant institution where every day positive action is taken for the benefit of all Lake County citizens. Since the Museum's founding April 15, 1957, the Staff has been involved in collecting and preserving historical objects which, for the most part, can not be replaced. It is never an easy task to take action which is constructive and in the best interests of all of our citizens. But the people who have so generously given of their time, effort, and money have continued to act constructively with the full realization that, unless this task is accomplished, Lake County will never again have an opportunity to have a museum of this quality.

We have all been using the facilities offered by the institutions built by our forefathers, and now is our one chance in history to preserve our county's history. Just as our ancestors had vision and planned for our benefit, we also must recognize our responsibilities to the future generations. This is certainly the time for all Lake Counties to support the Lake County Museum of History. The Museum Board of Trustees is now in the process of having a fund raising drive in order to properly house the Museum and to assure its perpetuation. Although the money used to construct the

Dear Sirs:

I want to thank you for the fine publicity you have given us leading up to our first service last Sunday. It was a real success with an overflow crowd of 316 packed into the nave and narthex and five cars left when they saw the crowded condition. If you want to run a follow up story on this first service, you might also mention that many people expressed interest in membership and that the congregation will be organized in a month or two according to the schedule of our Southern Wisconsin District President of the American Lutheran Church, Dr. Myron Augustine of Janesville, Wisconsin. Christ

Lutheran Church is one of 60 congregations being established throughout America this year by the American Lutheran Church; making an average of over one new congregation every week.

I have also enclosed our regular notice on a separate slip.

Thank you again for your fine coverage.

MY OLE GRANDPAPPY USED TO SAY!

By the Rev. Fr. Edmond E. Hood

Six things the LORD hates,
Seven are an abomination to him:

And he who sows discord among brothers.

"He Was A Fine Young Man"

Johnny was a fine young man. He studied hard, posted good grades and was considered a leader in high school. His parents, rightfully, were proud of him. And the neighbors still will tell you he was a "model" son.

But Johnny had a craving—a craving that prevails among thousands of Johnny's today. And among their parents, too.

You could almost call it a disease. Often it is fatal. It was for Johnny.

Because Johnny liked to drive. Fast.

Yes, speed killed Johnny. It killed nearly 13,000 other people in this country, too, according to a survey by The Travelers Insurance Companies.

Speed, caught up with Johnny when he was returning from a high school prom. He approached a sharp curve at precisely 60 miles-an-hour.

They buried Johnny three days later.

And they buried the girl who had been his date for the evening.

Friends were shocked. Stunned neighbors poured out sympathy to the grief-stricken families.

Months have passed since the accident. But Johnny's father thinks often of his son.

Most of all his dad recalls the days before Johnny was old enough to hold a license—those days when he was teaching Johnny to drive.

And his dad knows only too well who was responsible for Johnny's insatiable craving for speed.

Read Labels Before Using Garden Sprays & Dusts

With the long-awaited coming of Spring, home gardeners are eagerly reaching for sprays, forks and cultivators to till the good earth and sow the seeds that will bring fresh homegrown vegetables and flowers to brighten the months ahead. And not long after the green seedlings break through, many will apply a variety of sprays, dusts or aerosols to fight the onslaught of plant-devouring insects. Even before then some will prepare with fertilizers and weed killers. "Before using any of these effective gardening aids be sure to read the label, particularly the precautions," urges Dr. Arthur B. Baker, Director of the Lake County Health Department.

Today there are over 40,000 brands of insecticides and pesticides—registered with the U. S. Department of Agriculture, and many contain chemicals that are extremely poisonous to people and animals, as well as to the insects they are intended to kill.

These are all highly effective insecticides, but can be dangerous, even deadly if not used with proper caution. As one Agricultural Experiment Station expert puts it, "Experience has demonstrated clearly that it is not the use of pesticides, but rather their misuse, that has accounted for all of the unfortunate incidents that have occurred to date."

Some of these compounds are poisonous when inhaled or swallowed, others when absorbed through the skin. When applying these substances, be certain that no one, especially a child, is nearby. Keep pets out of the way. Be careful of wind or draft, to avoid inhaling dusts or sprays. If any of the material gets on your clothing, wash the clothes and yourself immediately. And even though this does not happen, wash hands and face thoroughly after each use of insecticides.

When storing unused portions of these materials, even if only until tomorrow, or next week end, be sure they are kept in their original containers and placed out of sight of children. Never put left-over liquids in soft drink bottles, which are in obvious temptation to children.

If the misfortune of accidental poisoning does occur, the victim should be taken to a doctor or one of the county's poison control centers. These poison control centers are located in Victory Memorial Hospital, Waukegan; Condell Memorial Hospital, Libertyville; Zion Community Hospital, Zion; Lake Forest Hospital, Lake Forest; and Highland Park Hospital, Highland Park. And in order that the proper treatment can be given rapidly, be prepared to tell the doctor the name of the product that was used. Even better, give him the original container and label. He can then quickly determine the specific measures for appropriate treatment. Remember, always read the label before using and follow the precautions carefully.

Appointed To U.S. Air Force Academy

WASHINGTON, D. C.—Wisconsin's First District Representative, Henry C. Schadeberg today announced the appointment of Randolph C. Vincent of Genoa City to the United States Air Force Academy. His appointment was based on the results of competitive examinations conducted by the U. S. Civil Service Commission in addition to the mental and physical entrance examinations given by the Air Force Academy.

Randy is a graduate of Northwestern Military and Naval Academy, Lake Geneva, and during the past school year has been a cadet at the Millard School in Bandon, Oregon.

The Chicago Motor Club says that both the driver and the passengers in his car always should leave the automobile from the sidewalk side. Opening your car door in the face of traffic could cause a passing car to hit you or your car, or to have an accident when it swerves to avoid your open door.

GIRL SCOUT NEWS

Mrs. W. J. Watt, Channel Lake, has been named Director of the day camp for Sequoyah Neighborhood Girl Scouts. This is Mrs. Watt's first year as head of the Chain O' Lakes Girl Scout camp, but she brings with her much past experience. She was a counselor at the Douglas Smith Girls' Camp, Ludington, Mich., for three years and also served as a counselor for one year at Shady Oaks, the cerebral palsy camp in Lockport, Ill. Although Mrs. Watt is the proud mother of two boys, she finds much enjoyment in bringing fun and excitement into the girl scout camp program.

Among the counselors for specific activities at camp will be Mr. Robert Vogel, Lake County Museum, who will inform the scouts about the Indian and early history of our county; Mr. James Waters from the Northern Illinois Conservation Club will interest the girls in wildlife and conservation; and Mrs. John Horton, professional artist from Antioch will instruct the girls in fine arts.

Some of the other activities planned are square dancing, under the direction of Mrs. J. Bruski, Antioch; bird observation, Mrs. R. Lindblad, Antioch; crafts, Mrs. T. J. Wilson, Grass Lake; folk dancing and singing, Mrs. George Amendola, Antioch; and first aid, to be taught by Mrs. Watt.

Since the theme of the day camp is Indian, the 90 Scouts, Brownie, Intermediate and Senior, will be divided into six tribes. Each girl will learn about her own tribe's history, customs, dress and ways of life. A potlatch and council fire will be held the last day of camp.

The Lakeview Girl Scout Council is sponsoring six day camps throughout North Lake County. Registration for camp will continue through May 15.

The North Shore Council of Boy Scouts will hold a Fitness Camporee on May 17-18-19 at Russe Woods. To give added emphasis to physical fitness training, the Boy Scouts of America has introduced a special "Fit for Tomorrow" program.

For fifty-two years, character building, citizenship training—and physical fitness—have been the marks of good Scouting. These are still the goals of the Boy Scouts of America. The aim of the Fitness Camporee is camping fun for boys. Just what is the program? Fitness events in the Camporee will be in four broad areas: Field events; Obstacle races; Campercraft contests; and Track events. The "heart" of the Camporee will be the Patrol within the Troop. The patrol will set up its own campsite activity within the troop area; will participate in the fitness activities together, and will be evaluated as a camping and participating unit. The Camporee involves the type of equipment that can be carried in a back by boys and can be set up entirely by the boys. The equipment thus set up will be completely self-sufficient for a self-reliant experience over a period of two or three days.

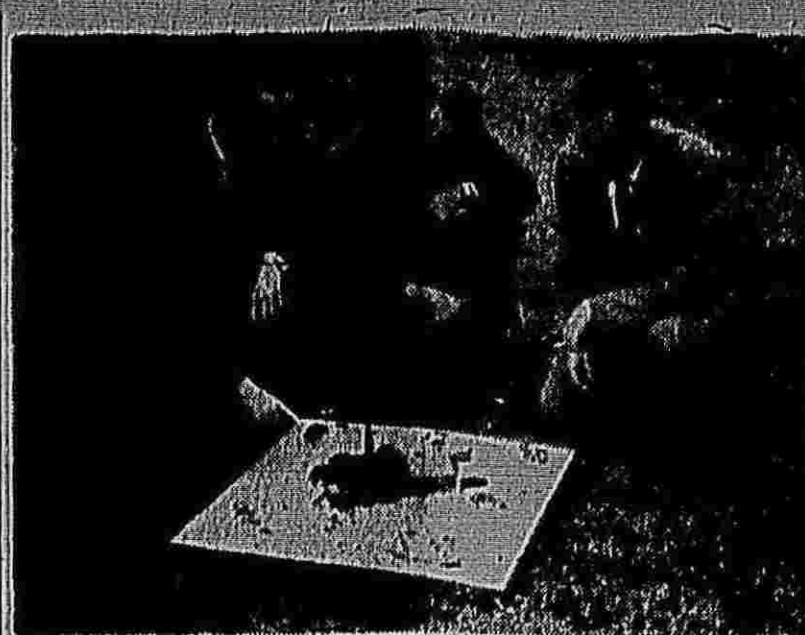

There will be a Webelos Day section of the Fitness Camporee conducted during the day, Saturday, May 18, from 9 a.m. until 4 p.m. Webelos Scouts will attend with their Dads and participate together throughout the day. All Scouts are invited to participate in the Fitness Camporee and should check with their local unit for additional details.

SOME THOUGHTS FOR MOTHER'S DAY

Strange that Mother's Day is celebrated on a Sunday—the day of rest! It seems out of character somehow.

Mothers are among the most vigilant and tireless guardians of the public health and, for that reason, the Lake County Heart Council tips its hat and tosses bouquets their way. Here are some typical examples of "mother talk"—all of them good solid sense to help keep families healthy.

"Power mower or not, why don't you wait till this evening to mow the lawn? That midday sun is awfully hot."

"Rest a while and let your lunch settle. Home runs and a full stomach don't go together—especially in a grown man."

"We've still got a long way to drive. Let's stop the car and stretch our legs a while."

"Wash your hands before coming to the table."

"I know it's your turn to be 'monitor' in school today, dear. But not with that sore throat."

"Don't overdo, honey. I'd look dreadful in widow's weeds."

"Let's go on a picnic. I'll pack a good lunch and we can get out into the air maybe go swimming."

"Why don't we walk over to Betty and Al's instead of sitting at the bridge table all night and the exercise will do us good."

"Darling, I'm glad you like my devil's food cake but one piece is enough for anyone at a single sitting. I'll save it for your lunch tomorrow. Besides, your belts are getting a little snug and I would not like you in suspenders."

"Let's get an outdoor grill. Barbecued hamburgers and shish-kabobs are good for us—and no pots and pans for me to scour."

"Don't try to move the piano by yourself, sweetie. Ask Harry to help you when he stops by tonight."

"I'm making an appointment for your annual check-up this week, dear. Make a note of it."

Mothers, bless their hearts!

of these career courses and have a guarantee in writing, before they enlist, that they will be assigned to this career field.

Interested women should contact Sgt. Arthur R. Nelson at 325 Washington St., Waukegan, Ill., or phone ON 2-5260 for detailed information about these exciting career fields.

NI Gas Shows Highest Sales

Northern Illinois Gas Company, in its quarterly statement to stockholders on May 1, reported 12-month revenues topped $175 million for the first time in the period ended March 31, and resulted in 12-month earnings of $2.05 a share.

This compares with revenues of $167 million and earnings of $2.05 for the 1962 calendar year, and revenues of $160 million and earnings of $2.03 for the 12 months ended March 31, 1962. The 1963 figures include NI Gas' subsidiary, Allied Gas Company, which was acquired on December 31, 1962.

The favorable results during the most recent period, according to NI Gas President Marvin Chandler, reflected the severely cold weather in January and February and the increased use of gas by all customers. With an increasing proportion of space heating sales to residential, commercial and industrial customers, temperature fluctuations have an important effect upon the Company's revenues. However, good gains continue to be made in the general use of gas by all these classes of customers.

The only range better than a good old gas range... is a good new gas "Exciting" is the word that best describes the many new features on today's gas ranges... features that make your time in the kitchen more pleasant, more productive. Best proof is to see the new ranges firsthand. When you do, you'll find features like these—yours only with a great new gas range.

- Precise control—Countless shades of heat between high and low—instantly. And when you turn gas off, it's off. No hangover heat to raise kitchen temperature.
- Beauty—The modernity of gas range cooking features is matched by handsome, up-to-the-minute styling that brightens your kitchen like a jewel.
- Mors for your money—You know gas cooks better for less. Now see the new gas ranges, including models with the built-in look that don't have to be built in.
- Automatic top burners—Precise control of selected temperatures; makes any cooking vessel an "automatic" appliance.
- Smokeless broiling—You broil with the broiler door closed. The gas flame consumes greasy smoke that otherwise would escape into the kitchen.

Stop this week at your appliance dealer's or Northern Illinois Gas Company showroom and see why a good new gas range is the only range better than a good old gas range.

This week's Christian Science program: "DEALING WITH FEAR AT EXAM TIME"

Emphasizes that God is the one, divine Mind—the source of all intelligence. Prayerful acknowledgment of this removes fear and tension. It frees the individual to think clearly and accurately, to express God-given mental abilities.

"Not that we are sufficient of ourselves; but our sufficiency is of God" (1 Cor. 3:5).

Testimony is related of a college student who overcame all sense of fear or rivalry and placed first in an oral examination, after studying and praying as she had been taught in a Christian Science Sunday School.

Illinois Association of Student Councils. Scott showed slides of a European tour he had taken with 79 other students and adults who had been active in the National Association of Student Councils. Jim Solog of Aurora East High School was another featured speaker.

The main purpose of this convention was the election of conference officers for next year. Elected were: Chip Hixson of Lake Forest High School, President; Mike Tate of Grant, First Vice-president; Jim Warfield of Wauconda, Second Vice-president; Laura Enos of Lake Forest, Secretary; and Renee Douglas of Round Lake, Treasurer.

The biggest news this week is the Prom Saturday night. Tickets have been printed, committees have been working, and the all important decorations are being made.

Last week the Juniors selected the five girls and their escorts who will comprise the Prom court. Jerry Burke, as Junior Class President, will be Prom king, but the name of the Queen will not be announced until Saturday night's coronation.

Friday is the State Science Fair at Champaign. In addition to the District superior winners, Willette Monnier, John Brady and Terry Witkowski, several members of the Bi-Phi-Chem will be going to the State Science Fair to see the many fine projects there.

On Saturday editors of the Sequoia and Tom Tom will attend the Fourth Annual Press Association Conference at the Northern Illinois University in DeKalb. Mr. Eggleston, publications adviser, will accompany the group.

Auditor Tells Session Costs

Michael J. Howlett, state Auditor of Public Accounts, has published a statement of expenses of the second special session of the 72nd Illinois General Assembly which convened November 12, 1962, and adjourned November 16.

The total expenditure was $37,508.33. Legislators are paid no extra salary for a special session. However, they receive $50 per session for incidental expenses and 10 cents a mile for one round trip per week between their homes and Springfield.

A total of $4,475.50 was paid to Senators for mileage and incidentals, and $14,532.00 to Representatives. Other expenses of the session included salaries of officers and employees of both houses, incidentals, stationery, printing and office supplies.

An unexpended balance of $580,114.57 was returned to the state of the $617,622.00 appropriation available for the special session.

Copies of the statement of expenses booklet may be obtained by writing to the public relations division, Auditor of Public Accounts, 201 Statehouse, Springfield, Ill.

More Traffic Law Enforcement Asked

In an appeal to all sheriffs and police chiefs in towns of more than 2,500 population, Joseph E. Ragen, director of the Illinois Department of Public Safety, asked for more stringent enforcement of traffic laws.

In a letter to law enforcement heads statewide, Ragen pointed out that last year more than 41,000 persons died violent deaths on the nation's highways. In Illinois, 1,890 persons lost their lives, and daily reports by the Illinois State police have shown increases hovering at from five to seven per cent over 1962 traffic accident figures.

"We must stop this terrific slaughter of people in auto accidents," Ragen said. "By

Some Interesting Facts About Headaches

Did you know...?

The older you get, the fewer headaches you are likely to have.

Single people have considerably more headaches than married people.

Mental patients rarely have headaches.

The severity of a headache is not a reflection of its seriousness.

At least 85 per cent of those suffering from recurrent headaches can be helped.

These are only some of the many interesting facts learned about man's most prevalent ailment through intensive research in the past 10 years. Research also reveals there are many kinds of headaches stemming from a variety of causes. Most of them, however, can be classified under three headings: occasional, chronic, tension or migraine.

The short-lived, occasional headache—with which most of us are familiar—is usually the result of excessive food or drink, overstrain, excitement, fatigue, poor ventilation, a blow on the head, susceptibility of certain foods or exposure to certain chemicals.

Best home remedy? Aspirin. Some people find that two aspirins with a cup of coffee is even more effective. Why coffee? Because caffeine has a tendency to keep the blood vessels in the head from swelling and pressing on the nerves. (That's usually what produces the pain in headaches.) If that doesn't help, try taking a nap or holding an ice bag on your head.

The chronic tension headache—which accounts for 65 to 75 percent of all head-working together at both the state and local levels, we can and will reverse this upward trend in traffic accidents, many of which result in death," he said.

aches—results from muscle contraction due to tension. Best home remedy again is aspirin. If this doesn't work, take a bath or have someone massage your shoulders and the back of your neck.

Whether you find relief or not, however, you'd better see your doctor because—though the chances are small—your chronic headache may be caused by a disease or organic malfunction.

Of course, the worst of all headache agonies is the migraine, which occurs in five to ten percent of the population. Unfortunately, its cause is still unknown, though a number of theories are being investigated.

How do you differentiate between the migraine and chronic tension headaches? If you're smart, you'll let your doctor do the diagnosing. However, it's generally known that migraines are usually preceded by a short period of depression, irritability, restlessness, or gastric upset, which may disappear shortly before the headache appears. Sometimes they accompany the headache.

Nausea and vomiting are common during an attack, also, with the pain usually concentrated on one side of the head. An untreated attack of migraine may last for hours or days.

WHY WASTE TAXPAYERS' MONEY?

Ideological considerations aside, it is difficult to follow the reasoning of a number of high government officials—in the Interior Department as well as those in other agencies—who fight unrelentingly on behalf of new and extremely costly socialized power projects, when private enterprise, heavily taxed, and financed entirely with private earnings and savings, is ready to do the job.

The fiscal position of the federal government is tenuous, to say the least. We are, it seems, to have tax reduction with no reduction in spending. Indeed, the Administration is solidly backing increased spending in virtually every area in which the government operates. The result will be a deficit of gigantic size. Some think it could very well run to $20 billion or so, for an all-time peace-time record.

In the light of all this, which is simply fact and not argument, economic sanity would certainly demand that government rigorously refrain from any spending which private enterprise and private resources are ready, able and not only willing but eager to take over.

Electric power development is the prime example here. Hundreds upon hundreds of millions of dollars

ALL ABOUT BABIES

A Public Service of the National Baby Care Council

ROCK-A-BYE BABY

By C. Robert Gruver, Editor, All About Babies

Some babies sleep without any trouble. Others, like adults are born bad sleepers. Slight disturbances wake them up. The born bad sleepers frequently lie awake for hours after being put to bed. Sometimes babies will lie awake in order to attract attention.

These discoveries emerged from a review of medical literature dealing with the management of healthy babies who won't sleep.

Doctors list a few of the more common causes of sleeplessness:

Teething, too much light, gastro-intestinal distress, a tight abdominal binder, unsuitable underwear, a knotty mattress, a poorly made bed, or insufficient bedclothes leading to cold hands and feet and discomfort caused by a wet or soiled diaper.

If sleeplessness persists, the first thing is to consult your doctor to rule out any organic disturbance.

Then look to baby's comfort. A loose sleeping bag will keep the baby from being uncovered. Most babies like flannel pajamas, a hard, with a blanket and a flannel sheet. Tight clothing should be avoided, and the baby should always be freshly diapered.

A professional diaper service will always assure a ready supply of clean processed diapers.

If the baby is afraid of the dark, there should be a small light in the room. A warm bath at night has the effect of soothing many babies and promoting their sleep. A quiet period before bed time is recommended.

If your baby understands, you may find it sometimes helps to suggest that its eyes look tired, that it looks sleepy and will soon be fast asleep.

Dr. Morris Witkin, a pediatrician, has this suggestion for handling the difficult baby:

"To insist on sleep where there is no desire is senseless, for sleep will not be commanded. One cannot stampede a child to sleep. To are involved. The question is whether these shall be added to the deficit, on a tax-free basis, or whether we will give the green light to regulated, super-taxed private enterprise, and thus retard the drive toward a socialized country.

Edgar Simonson as Fire Chief, Mrs. Martha Hunter as treasurer, Edward C. Jacobs as village attorney, Dr. A. N. Berke as Health Officer and Irving Walsh as Director of Public Grounds and Buildings. Walter I. Scott was appointed as Building Commissioner.

John Moran asked approval of a proclamation designating June 29, 1963, as Golden Anniversary Day for Antioch.

Fire Dept. A parade, Open House and dance are scheduled as part of the observance of the Fiftieth Year of the Department.

A Tag Day on July 6 was requested by the Antioch Grade School Band Parents' Association and permission was granted.

Chief Walter Scott presented the request of a Victor Klains for permission to construct an eight-apartment dwelling on a site behind the Jewel Tea Store. The matter was turned over to the zoning committee for study.

Warren Heintz of Oakwood Knolls asked the board to consider granting a free water and sewer hook-up to a destitute family living in Oakwood Knolls. A contractor, he said, had offered to do the work free. The family's present septic system, he said, is a health hazard. The board said they could not grant a free hook-up, and advised Mr. Heintz to refer the family to the Antioch Savings and Loan Assoc. for a loan.

Ray Toft, as chairman of the salary committee, asked that a 5% increase in the pay of all village employees be given to keep pace with the cost of living. The board voted approval. He also requested that the pay of extra policemen be raised from $1.50 to $2.00 an hour. The raise was approved.

Ernest Glenn suggested that the deadline for sewer and water hook-ups at the present lower rate be moved up from March 1 to May 1, 1964, because of the delay in completion of the system. The matter was not voted on by the board.

The board approved purchase of a striping machine for maintenance of center lines on streets and parking

Pick Up Man Near Village

If you noticed considerable activity around the usually quiet Antioch Police station—state police, etc.—well here's what we could find out.

State police spotted a wanted man on the highway near Antioch. He was taken in to the Antioch police station for questioning, and held there for Downer's Grove police, who had a warrant for his arrest.

Chief Scott was out of town when we called. Downer's Grove police declined to give out any information.

Chief Scott called us back about 3 p.m. He said, "It's a State police matter. I don't stick my nose in it." However, he did say that the man was picked up on the charge of molesting a 13-year-old boy. Name of the suspect and other details were unknown to him.

If we find out any more about it we'll let you know.

Slowly moving tractors and other farm vehicles are added driving hazards during the spring planting season, says the Chicago Motor Club. Motorists should reduce speeds and prepare for emergency stops in areas where farm equipment is likely to be on the roads.

The safest way to pass a tractor is to reduce your speed, trail along behind it until you see adequate clearance ahead, and then pass.

spaces at a cost of $395.00. Edgar Simonson announced that two new street lights of the mercury vapor type would be installed soon, one on McMillen Road, one on Route 173 near Hunter's Garage.

The board approved the application of Lester Zitkus, 960 Victoria, as a member of the Antioch Fire Dept.

Dr. Vermeren announced that the new Antioch Savings & Loan Plaza would be completed by July 1, and invited the Village Board to make use of the new Community Room for future meetings.

Robins Are Mothers, Too

Russell Lasco has gone all out in his observance of Mother's Day.

However, he isn't limiting his recognition of the honor due motherhood to Sunday, May 12. He's been paying homage to the honorable institution for some time, and will continue for at least two more weeks, probably more.

Russell, who owns a septic tank contracting business on Route 21, has a problem. A mother robin has built a nest on his machinery trailer.

The trailer is used to move tractors and like heavy machinery used in their business. About a week ago, they noticed that the robin followed them for a ways when they took the trailer out in the morning, and was waiting for their return.

Investigation revealed the nest on the underside of the trailer, with (at that time) one egg in it.

So now Russell can't use the trailer. It sets there complete with mother robin, her nest and her eggs, patiently waiting for hatching day. Then it will probably have to sit until the baby robins can fly.

We tried to get a picture of Mother Robin on the nest, but the situation of the nest made it impossible to get a clear shot.

Pete Wagner Joins Staff at Spring Valley Country Club

Some changes have been made at the Spring Valley Country Club this year, the most notable of which is the addition of partner Pete Wagner to the staff. Wagner purchased his interest in the club last year but due to a previous commitment was unable to serve at the local club.

Beginning his 10th year in golf as a professional, Pete has been a member of the Professional Golf Association for 18 years. His golf background includes 4 years at Skokie Country Club, one and daily fee players.

The pro shop is being revitalized and will have available a complete line of golf equipment. The course is in excellent condition members say, and suffered very little from one of the area's hardest winters.

Golf outings and tournaments will take a portion of the course use this season. The club has been picked as the site for the Wisconsin State Catholic High School Golf Tournament this year. The competition is scheduled for Thursday, May 23rd.

Later in the summer the club will once again host one round of the annual Kenosha County Open. Both the Salem and Antioch High Schools use the course and facilities at Spring Valley for their respective golf programs.

Golf outings and special events for the public and members alike are included in this year's program. The first such event will be the annual Macht Nicht Aus party scheduled for Wednesday, May 15. The affair will include golf, dinner and prizes and is open to anyone who plays at Spring Valley.

Another program just under way is the Tuesday evening golf league. Four man teams will compete Tuesday evenings for nine holes and all scores will be handicapped.

It all adds up to a full program at Spring Valley this year and Pete and Pick Wagner extend their invitation to come up to Salem and take a tour. Just hang a sign in the window, "gone golfin'."

year at Westgate Country Club and the past 4 years as assistant pro at Westmoreland Country Club, Wilmette, Illinois.

Pete has participated in many tournaments throughout his career but the one he remembers most was a night tournament held near Chicago in 1934. "It was played on an experimental illuminated nine-hole par 3 course," Pete said. "The lights were furnished by the Public Service Company and I believe they ended up in the box park." Pete won the tournament, incidentally.

Pete's wife Frances (Bobbie) is also a golf fan and enjoys getting out on the links whenever possible. They have two children, a son, Peter, Jr., 24, and a daughter, Marianne. Peter, Jr., was recently graduated from Loyola University, magna cum laude and Marianne is a senior at Mundelein, planning a career in teaching.

"We have no major changes in mind at the present time," Pete said, "but improvements will be made regularly." The club at present holds a semi-private status, with club house and shower and locker facilities available to both members

Sorry—We Put Wrong Team In First Place

We apologize to the Ace Roofing Bowling team for denoting them to second place in the Thursday Night Business Men's League.

Last week we gave Erich's Auto Repair as the winner of first place in the league. We were wrong. Erich's Auto Repair finished in second place.

The league bowling ended in a tie between Erich's and Ace Roofing. In the roll-off, Ace Roofing won. So they're first-place team in the Thursday night Business Men's league.

Sorry.

High-Scoring Track Squad Breaks Records

Starts Survey Of Fish In Lakes Chain

The long awaited comprehensive survey of the Fox Chain of Lakes was launched by Fisheries Biologist Bruce Muench, in a three day sweep of selected places in the chain.

One of the projects involves a census of the fish in a given area. This is accomplished by the use of an electric shocking device. They are brought to the surface, netted and placed in a special tank, after which they are measured, weighed, their kind noted, and then returned to the water, unharmed. In the case of the northern pike and the white bass, a few scales are removed, for further study in the laboratory. This is repeated at different places, to gain information as to the whereabouts of the fishes. Water chemistry tests are also made in the various lakes to gain an insight into the condition of their habitat. Water temperature is taken at the surface and at the two foot level, as well as oxygen content, turbidity and other tests.

At one place, a gill net with five different mesh sizes was set out at night and its catch recorded and released the following morning. This is to learn the movement of these fishes from one area to another.

The survey was begun in Pistakee Lake and proceeded through Nippersink, Fox, Pelee, Marie, Channel and Grass Lakes.

All of this will be repeated at the end of the month and again in June, July and August.

The backwater areas were checked for evidence of the newly hatched northern pike and the minute insect life which they feed upon.

It will be recalled that this survey was brought about by the insistence of the Northern Illinois Conservation Club. Publicity director Harry H. Stern accompanied the survey as an observer for the Club.

Sportsman's League Honors Abbott's Labs

The Illinois Division of the Izaak Walton League of America presented its Sanitation Award to Abbott Laboratories, North Chicago, Ill., at a luncheon April 25 at the Waukegan Inn.

The award recognizes the company's outstanding contributions in the field of waste treatment and the control of water pollution. It was accepted on behalf of the pharmaceutical firm by Dr. Charles S. Brown, Vice-President, U. S. and Canadian Operations.

Abbott Laboratories is the only company in the North Chicago area that operates its own waste treatment facilities.

The plant's capacity is comparable to a system that could handle all the sanitary waste of a city of 100,000 people. Each month a complete log of operating data is sent to the State Sanitary Board.

The Antioch Sequoit track squad continued to dominate the suburban conference, by soundly winning in a triangular meet Thursday, May 2, against Round Lake and Warren. The Sequoits scored 88 points to 37 for Round Lake and 24 for Warren.

Antioch then took a leave from conference competition to place second in the Salem Invitational Track Meet Friday, May 3. The Sequoits finished with 38 points behind Mukwonago with 46.

In the triangular affair Thursday, Dubas, Rathbone, Fowles, Casella, Edwards and Thayer all accounted for first place finishes to aid the Sequoits' cause. Both the 880 and mile relay squads also took first place honors.

In the 880 yard run, Edwards and Effinger finished 2 and 3 behind Rathbone with Clausen of Warren in fourth place. This ten point event for the Sequoits put them well in front in the point standings and they dominated the meet from then on.

At Salem Friday, Diane Rathbone and Dave White accounted for the only first place finishes for the Sequoits. Rathbone took the

Bad Weather Cancels Races

Waukegan, May 4—Inclement weather conditions forced cancellation of the scheduled opening program of stock car racing at the Waukegan Speedway.

A total of 73 cars and drivers braved the rain and cold to have their cars inspected and to get a few practice laps in before dark.

Fans that braved the elements did get a sneak preview at some mighty fine automobiles that will be challenging for the championship crowns during the 1963 campaign. Leading some 30 modified cars was John Reimer, Caledonia, and Don Sorce, West Allis, who turned some of the fastest laps with beautiful handling ease.

Donny Burgan, Zion, last year's champion toured his number one sportsman car into some hot laps, and Dan Kopshe, Muskego, Wis., and Len Kanne, Kenosha, turned the better times among the late model entries.

Track manager Mike Kaishian announced that rain checks will be honored next Saturday night when the same type of program will be planned. Time trials will start at 7 p.m. with the races getting under way at 8:30.

about $1 million in the facilities and spends about $200,000 annually to operate them, said Frye.

Abbott has within its own ranks a wide range of scientific disciplines that it draws upon to engineer, test and seek ways to improve methods of treatment. Continuous experimental programs have been valuable to the entire field of chemical waste treatment as well as to the industry in general and to municipalities. The scope of the studies has attracted nationwide attention and has received the commendation of the State Sanitary Water Board and the North Shore Sanitary District.

IF YOU'RE SO SMART, WHY AREN'T YOU RICH?

Needles and Pins, Needles and Pins, Now the Battle Between the Sexes Begins.

Just in case anyone is interested, my favorite "dish" is a steamed "tomato." Get it, Annie, whoever you are?

The more a man knows about himself the less he says about it.

Annie, dear colleague, let's not kid the goldfish about which is the weaker sex. Certainly not you girls. It has been rumored that you're as strong as bulls and that's no bull. Fact: Out here on Indian Point, in a stretch of just a little over one-half mile there are fifteen widows and only one lone widower.

Weaker sex, indeed. Just think, out of some fifty homes, I'm including our summer week-end neighbors, almost one-third of you have outlived your husbands.

Or look at it this way: if you're so weak (your sex, Annie) how come you're killing off my stronger sex like flies, so to speak?

THAT'S ONE BEER ON YOU.

Did you know, Annie dear, that one of the noblest tasks to which anyone can set himself is the impartation of knowledge to his fellow man (and woman). In giving out with the "smart goods," it is my ardent desire that every last reader of "What's Cooking?" gets every speck of meat off the bone. So I explain that which seems to need explanation, if only for the benefit of one lone reader. Like for instance, should I one day pursue a subject wherein I might mention a hysterical loop; while I'm sure, Annie, that you'd know at once what it is, some unknowing soul might think reference was being made to a certain operation which is peculiar to the female of the species. Elucidation would obviously be called for. No doubt you've read some non-fiction books in which the author makes certain explanations in foot notes. Do you then get steamed at the writer because you might understand or know the statement without the additional information? If you're that smart, you should instead give yourself a pat on the back—but do be careful not to break your arm. Tell me why, dear Annie, must you feel he is inferring lack of intelligence on your part when he is simply being a "nice guy" by going to a little extra trouble to make his thoughts "ring a bell"? You're not a grouch, are you, Annie honey?

THAT'S ANOTHER BEER ON YOU, KIDDO.

NICC Hosts Scouts On Forest Trip

By Harry H. Stern

The Northern Illinois Conservation Club was host to 60 Girl Scouts, Boy Scouts and their leaders Sunday, on their annual safari to the Kettle Moraine Forest in Wisconsin. Purpose of the trip was to study reforestation practices as it applies to conservation.

The forest ranger in charge explained how pine trees are planted, how to tell the different species apart, how seeds become seedlings and how they are finally placed in the ground, to one day become a noble tree.

There was a cookout for the Scouts, followed by a brisk hike through the forest to explore the wonders of nature, as well as to observe the results of previous plantings by schoolchildren.

In charge of the trip for the NICC was treasurer Dr. George W. Jensen and publicity director Harry H. Stern. Taking part in the outing were Girl Scout Troop 204, Channel Lake; Boy Scout Troops 80, Grass Lake; Troop 81, Fox Lake; Troop 86, Channel Lake and Troop 91, Antioch. This trip followed the introduction of conservation education in the classrooms of Lotus School and Channel Lake School, an important work of the NICC.

The children of Lotus School planted 375 pine trees on their school grounds under the guiding supervision of NICC president Richard Waters, Dr. George W. Jensen, Ernest DiLabio and the faculty. These same officials also guided the planting of 150 pine trees on the Channel Lake School grounds and another 450 in a special plot reserved for this purpose at Oak Point Park. It was through the special efforts of State Parks Supt. James McMillen of Antioch that grounds has been set aside for the planting of trees by children from schools that do not have sufficient grounds for this purpose.

The children at Grass Lake School planted 150 pine trees on their spacious grounds, this in addition to the 1000 which they planted last year, to replace those that did not make it.

Elmer Werhane, State Forestry Division, inspected the plantings and expressed his complete satisfaction with the results.

Trees were supplied to the schools at no cost by the NICC as part of their continuing conservation education efforts.

The following didn't know either, do not read the column, or if they do, only occasionally: Ruth Lehmann, Helen Halting, Vera Sorenson, Margaret Webb, Aunt Min, Margaret Gaston, and Helen Burke. Ellen Badame and Mildred Groeninger didn't know when it is or even what it is; neither did Lottie Vejvodsa, but she did know where it is because she fishes on it (Arbor Vitae Lake in Wisconsin) with her man. Lucille Eberman, Mary Bierman, Diane Irmen and Gladys Zobus didn't know either. I asked Millie Moderatz what she knew about Arbor Day and she replied: "I didn't know Dennis had a brother." Only Lilli Jensen knew. (LOUD CHEERS). The others who were interviewed declined to be quoted.

Sorry fellas, we've been taken again. Without us even having the slightest inkling, the "stronger" and the "smarter" sex (Ita) took over our column, lock, stock and parentheses. We'll have to be on the ball at all times so it doesn't happen again.

know when is Arbor Day? Simple—the mere fact that you ARE gals, intelligence, or the lack of it has nothing to do with it. But what made you think they would know? How could you be so sure? One sure way was to go out among the "audience" and ask. Over one hundred of you gals were interviewed and you'd be amazed at some of the answers they gave. For example, Mrs. Ed Smith of Ed Smith's Resort on Grass Lake is a constant reader of the column and she didn't know when Arbor Day is. Other readers of the column who did not know included Tess Baumann, Carol Cervenka, Lola Mathisen, Mrs. Barney Shumerson, Betty Anderson, Roberta Meyer, and Pearl Fowles. Marine Corp Tests Boys For Physical Fitness

The Marine Corps Recruiting station at Waukegan recently conducted an experimental physical fitness program at the Antioch High School in the hope that the program can be expanded in future years to include other high schools in the conference.

The test is the regular physical fitness test on the basis of their age and performance in each test.

Made up of five parts, the test includes sit-ups, pull-ups, squat thrusts, push-ups and a 300 yard run. There are 100 points possible in each event, a total of 500. A grade of 250 for the complete test is considered passing.

The program was given to each boys' physical education class at the high school and was conducted by the Marine Corps. Local Recruiter, Sgt. Bill Greer, was in charge of the program and was aided by Sgt. Hal Jensen, Elmhurst Recruiter, Sgt. Harry Sheets, Joseph Raduka, and Michael Gleason, members of the reserve unit at Great Lakes.

Well over half of the students participating in the test received a passing score of 250 points or over. Jim Callahan topped all performances of the day long program by totaling 462 points for the five exercises. Callahan is in the 18 year old group.

Close behind in the outstanding bracket was Brad Brenna, 16, with 457 points. Louie Meglio, 16, Jim Shepard, 16, and Thomas Furlan, 18, were the only other students totaling 400 points or over.

Each participant receiving 250 points or more received an award from the Marine Corps, citing his achievement. The Lake Region Junior Chamber of Commerce has donated a trophy which will have the name of each outstanding performer in each age bracket, engraved on it. The trophy will stay at the school and new names will be added each year as the program is carried on.

The presentation by the Jaycees is scheduled for the afternoon of May 15th, at the regular awards program at the high school.

BOATING WITH BOWMAN

WHAT TO DO IF YOU RUN YOUR BOAT AGROUND
By Hank Bowman
(Courtesy Sequoit Harbor)

The inquisitive boatman with an exploratory complex who likes to poke his boat's bow into uncharted waters is likely sometime to stick high and dry on a mud flat, bar or reef.

If this happens to you, try to curb that instinct to throw the engine into reverse and power your way out into deeper water. If the water is excessively shallow, you may pump sand or mud into your engine's cooling system.

Reversing the engine can also pack a neat dam of sand, mud or silt around the hull's keel and just add to your problem. If you've gone aground on rocks or in a stump filled area, any attempt to back off may damage your propeller and add to harm already done.

THE 19th HOLE

BY GEORGE DIAMOND

You get a fresh appreciation of Mid-America's beautiful countryside at the George Diamond Country Club.

The front nine of this championship golf course at Route 59 and Grass Lake Road in Antioch is picturesque. But the panoramic view on the back nine is simply breath-taking.

If you are interested in joining a private golf club, drive out and look us over. Our private clubhouse is adjacent to the open-to-the-public George Diamond Charcoal Broiled Steak House which serves the same No. 1 quality food that has won a coast-to-coast reputation for our steak houses on S. Wabash in Chicago and in Palm Springs, California.

Golf isn't fun if you have to wait hours to play or are delayed at every hole. The George Diamond Country Club course will never "crowd up" because we are limiting memberships to 150.

Informality and congeniality are the watchwords of this club. Call 395-0999 for details or drop in and see for yourself. You'll be pleasantly surprised at our reasonable membership fees.

Our new golf driving range is open to the public. Special fees are available for practicing your iron shots while other fees permit you to exercise your woods.

Early in July our "golf under lights" course will be ready. This sporty 9-hole course will be open to the public. It will feature par 3 holes with the exception of the ninth hole which is a 400-yard par 4.

This 9-hole night course on the driving range is a great place to whet the appetite, and there is no better place to appease that appetite than the George Diamond Charcoal Broiled Steak House, where dinners start at $1.65.

Just a bossa-nova step from the George Diamond Charcoal Broiled Steak House is the Go-Go-Room for your dancing pleasure. There is no minimum nor cover charge in the Go-Go-Room and we even absorb the excise tax.

We also have fine accommodations for banquets, private parties or convention groups. Write the George Diamond Charcoal Broiled Steak House in Antioch for details . . . or better yet, drive out to our 300 scenic acres at Route 59 and Grass Lake Road. Treat yourself to a mouth-watering charcoal broiled steak and then ask to see our facilities.

High-Scoring....

880 with a time of 2:02.3, a new school record, while White was clearing the pole vault at 11'.

Rick Fowles, although finishing in second behind Baxter of Mukwonago, set another school record in the 440 yard run with a time of 53.2 seconds. Both the 880 and mile-relay teams had second place finishes.

Other Sequoit point winners were Tom Morgan in the 100 yard dash, Tom Tanlinger in the 440 and Paul Clifton in the broad jump, all with third place finishes.

In the fourth place spot were Don Richter, running the 220 and Vince Casella in the shot put. Bruce Dalgard ran fifth in the 120 yard low hurdles.

Other schools in the order of their finish were Pewaukee, Burlington, Oak Creek, Watertown, Salem, Union Grove, Badger Lake Geneva, Big Foot, Wilmet and Clinton.

Boating....

secure the line tightly enough so that the boat won't swing and then take stock of the situation. If you're in tidal water and the tide is coming in, relax and let the incoming tide float you free.

If your boat is powered by an outboard motor, tilt the engine up so that the propeller and skeg will not be damaged. If the water all still offers buoyancy, shift all movable weight astern and see if you can't float the boat off without dragging the fore section which is aground. Try pushing with an oar or boathook.

Shift rhythmically back and forth asternships of the cockpit to set the boat to rocking. The rocking motion will help break suction and free the bow.

With no tide or wind, a kedging anchor can be dropped dead astern—or preferably, set out two anchors, one off to the starboard quarter, the other to port. Pull alternately on these lines. The bow of the boat will be made to work back and forth in much the manner you would use a stick that had been jammed into the ground.

If the tide is falling fast, your boat is a large one and there is no chance to get it free until the tide changes, then you better check the condition of the bottom to either side of the hull. When the tide runs out, she's going to lay over to one side or the other since the chances are she won't support herself upright balanced on her keel. If the bottom to one side has no obstacles and on the other there are jagged rocks, shift any movable gear to the side to which you would prefer she heel. As the tide goes out, you and your passengers can give her an assist in that direction.

As the tide comes in, it may be necessary to help to right her. Otherwise the tide may flow over her sheer line and swamp her for the suction of mud and her weight may offset her tendency to right herself.

It's not a disease. Neither is it contagious. And it can't be inherited. But it can strike any family. And it can cripple a single child in as many as a dozen ways. It's name? Cerebral Palsy.

Lindenhurst News

By Mrs. Bernice Barreau

Women's Club Meeting

The Lindenhurst Women's Club will meet May 9 at the Civic Center at 8 p.m.

Members are reminded to donate their rummage to the Girl Scouts for their sale May 10 and 11. It will be held at the former Gibbs & Jenson store in Antioch. For pick-up call EL 6-7847.

There will be a hat trimming demonstration by Harriet's Millinery of Waukegan.
Also, hats to model.

Dart Ball Club

The Lake County Dart Ball team held their first meeting at the home of Mrs. Milla Gast, Friday afternoon.

Fifteen ladies are in the club.
The ladies are divided into two teams and they throw darts at a baseball diamond.

The scoring depends where the dart lands. Marge Campbell and June Simecek each won a cake plate for having the most hits and runs. Zenia Neumann was tied with June but lost out in the tie breaker. If we get to be any good, we will challenge other teams. In a year, the lady that is the best player, will receive a trophy. Since the diamond is so large, all meetings will be held at Milla's, but each member will have a turn as hostess.

Men's Club News

Business discussed at the May meeting of the Linden-hurst Men's Club was the Spring "Hanky-Panky" dance on May 25 at the Civic Center. A King and Queen will be chosen by admission ticket. They will each receive a gift.
